

106.616

WILLIAM MCGONIGAL

Resides in Philadelphia but summers at Lavallette and at weekends during the fall.

SEPTEMBER 15, 1922.

Recalls fishing on the beach Friday evening, September 15, 1922, with Mr. Stevens and Mr. Eger and Applegate. Saw Henry Stevens about 10 o'clock.

Does not recall whether it was Eastern Standard or Daylight Time.

SEPTEMBER 16, 1922.

On Saturday, the 16th, was fishing near Mr. Stevens and Mr. Eger, who was nearer Henry S. than he.

Remembers somebody delivering a paper to Henry S.

Then saw Henry S. running in the direction of his house. McGonigal walked over to Eger and inquired why Henry S. was running.

Eger said Stevens just received a telegram that one of his relatives had died.

McGonigal has never known Stevens to be so excited as on this occasion.